

To undergraduate and graduate students

Announcement: Online Registration of a Bank Account for Automatic Payment of Tuition and Other Fees

From FY2022, we will change the method for registration of a bank account for automatic payment of tuition and other fees from paper-based registration using an application form to online registration. When registering a new account or changing your existing account, please go through the procedure via the Internet (smartphone, tablet, or PC).

The annual schedule has been set for the online account registration period. Please note that you can only follow the procedure during the designated registration period. (If you were enrolled in the University in FY2021 and wish to continue to pay tuition fees from the same account in FY2022, you do not need to register again during the period below. If you become a new student in FY2022 due to going on to graduate school or other reasons, you are required to register again.)
